James Huysman, PsyD, LCSW

Dr. Huysman is the co-founder and Executive Director of the Leeza Gibbons Memory Foundation. He received a PsyD in psychology from Cal Southern University and a Master's degree in social work from Barry University. He is a board certified therapist in clinical social work, crisis interventionist, certified addictions professional and a certified compassion fatigue therapist. Dr. Huysman has served as a clinical expert on more than one hundred nationally syndicated talk shows including Montel, The Leeza Show, The Les Brown Show, Moral Court, and The Rick Sanchez show, and as an expert witness on the effect of talk show exposure to participants in the "Jenny Jones" trial. He has been referred to as the "Robin Hood of Talk T.V.," because of his assistance to guests and viewers and, through TV Aftercare™, the first national network of healthcare providers designed to serve the wellness needs of the talk, court, and reality show industry, he has secured almost 7 million dollars of treatment for over 700 guests and their families. Today, he spends his on air time working with his friend, Leeza Gibbons on Leeza Live. As a clinical consultant and featured TV and radio personality, Dr. Huysman continues to be profiled on national and international radio and in hundreds of local, national, and international newspapers and magazines.
